The New Missouri Fanfare ‘93
Missouri Waltz
The Star-Spangled Banner
Tiger Rag
Eye of the Tiger
Give a Cheer for Mizzou’s Tigers!
Old Missouri
Every True Son/Daughter
Fight Tiger

From a 12-man cadet band in 1885, to debuting the block M formation in 1934, to performing the famous Flip Tigers drill first in 1960, to swelling in even greater numbers upon joining the Southeastern Conference, the noble past of Marching Mizzou is yours to carry.

Go and march proudly with us, wear the columns six upon your shoulder, and join our sound! This packet is the traditional tunes of pregame, for you to learn and memorize. These shall be your first and fondest memories of Marching Mizzou: the energy of the Fanfare, the classic beauty of our Alma Mater, and the pride of our fight songs.

1st Trombone

The University of Missouri proudly presents...
One of the great university bands of America...
Performing THE greatest pregame show in college football...
Celebrating over a century of tradition...
The Big M of the Midwest:

Marching Mizzou
The original 1970s Missouri Fanfare (or “Frankfare”) was rearranged by the late John Stout of the University of Michigan in 1993. Listen closely; you can hear strains of our fight songs, the Waltz, and our Alma Mater in this fanfare. The music crescendos up to the announcement of MARCHING MIZZOU, m. 43 and ends with a horn pop on the final measure. Be careful articulating the triplets and rapid eighths, and watch the cutoffs.

Marching Mizzou at Pregame, 1958
The Big M of the Midwest forms the Block M
Missouri plays the SMU Mustangs
Sadly, the Tigers lose 32-19
The Star-Spangled Banner

Lyrics by Francis Scott Key

con spirito \( \frac{\text{\textit{f}}}{104} \)

B♭ Version

Harmonized by Walter Damrosch

arr. John Philip Sousa

Marching Mizzou

Despite being notoriously hard to sing, The Star-Spangled Banner had a fan in John Philip Sousa long before it was adopted as our national anthem in 1931. He admired it, saying, “besides its soul-stirring words... it is the spirit of the music that inspires.” This is the B-flat version, arranged in 1918 by Sousa. Focus on your memorization and musicality; this is a march!

The Star-Spangled Banner

Harmonized by Walter Damrosch

Copyright © 1918 by G. Schirmer, Inc.
Copyright renewed © 1945, by G. Schirmer, Inc.; Revised © 2019

Copyright © 1918 by G. Schirmer, Inc.
Copyright renewed © 1945, by G. Schirmer, Inc.; Revised © 2019

1st Trombone

Marching Mizzou

Tiger Rag

Original Dixieland Jass Band

arr. Ron Lowe

Tiger Rag a jazz standards, dating back to the dawn of the entire genre. The Original Dixieland Jass Band recorded it first in 1917. Tiger Rag was quickly adopted by universities with a tiger mascot, including LSU, Clemson, Auburn, and LSU. M2’s arrangement was written by Ron Lowe, a graduate teaching assistant under Director Norm Ruebling. Bring out the forte-piano and crescendo most of all. Trombones, the glissandos are all yours.

1st Trombone

Marching Mizzou

Tiger Rag

Original Dixieland Jass Band

arr. Ron Lowe

Copyright © 1918 by G. Schirmer, Inc.
Copyright renewed © 1945, by G. Schirmer, Inc.; Revised © 2019

Copyright © 1918 by G. Schirmer, Inc.
Copyright renewed © 1945, by G. Schirmer, Inc.; Revised © 2019

Despite being notoriously hard to sing, The Star-Spangled Banner had a fan in John Philip Sousa long before it was adopted as our national anthem in 1931. He admired it, saying, “besides its soul-stirring words... it is the spirit of the music that inspires.” This is the B-flat version, arranged in 1918 by Sousa. Focus on your memorization and musicality; this is a march!
Eye of the Tiger

Sullivan & Peterik

arr. Jason Strumbo, Director '02-'04

Eye of the Tiger is our latest addition to pregame. We feature the fabulous Golden Girls (formed in 1965), our feature twirlers (created in 1948), and the color guard with this unmistakable interpretation of Survivor's 1982 hit. This arrangement was written by then-graduate assistant Jason Strumbo, who would become Director from 2002 to 2004.

Carl E. Bolte, Jr. has insatiable spirit and enthusiasm for the Tigers and for our band; he refers to us as Marvelous Marching Mizzou. Among Mr. Bolte’s many compositions are five plays, 11 musicals, and a march for the USPS, “We’re the U.S. Postal Service”. This secondary fight song, “Cheer”, is his proudest contribution to M2. Memorize it carefully and deliberately, and don’t be timid with the pickup notes.

Give A Cheer For Mizzou’s Tigers!

Words and Music By Carl E. Bolte ASCAP

Arr. Shawn Bentz

Warren Bass performs as feature twirler, 1964
Known for his 100 ft. high tosses
The two-time U.S. National Baton Twirling champion started twirling with a broom in an alley.

Copyright © 1991 Carl E. Bolte, Jr. (MU’51)
Revised © 2019
Marching Mizzou

Old Missouri

Melody by H. S. Thompson

G. A. Wauchope ca. 1895

Our first fight song is set to the WWI tune “It's a Long Way to Tipperary”, the origin of the lyrics is unclear. In 1946, MU saw that post-WWII school spirit was down, and so they held a contest for a second fight song. Doctoral candidate Robert Karsch wrote the tune, with lyrics by undergraduate Donald MacKay. Their reward was a radio-phonograph. We nickname them “three” and “four” respectively. Memorize these first of all.

In Spring 1895, Mizzou's first glee club asked Dr. George Armstrong Wauchope to write an Alma Mater. Wauchope, an English professor, wrote the words in a single night. The tune “Annie Lisle” was chosen by two glee club members together with a professor's wife on piano. It was performed for a few years and then lost when the club disbanded; luckily, the pianist, Mrs. J. C. Jones, knew the words by heart and restarted the club, saving the song. Play our grand arrangement with pride and beauty. The first ending is rarely taken.

Academic Hall, dedicated in 1843 and expanded in 1885 Destroyed by fire in 1892, leaving only 6 columns Citizens of Columbia protected the six Ionic columns from demolition, saying “the Columns could not be pulled down by a herd of elephants.”
Marching Mizzou

Hey! Baby

MARGARET COBB & BRUCE CHANNEL
Arr. TOM WALLACE

G. A. Wauchope

Old Missouri

H. S. Thompson

1905

Our most precious tradition is the singing of our Alma Mater. Above is the same original four-part harmony that was composed and adopted in 1895, lost from 1898 to 1900, and saved when Mrs. J. C. Jones, the original pianist, reorganized the MU glee club in 1901. Learn one of the four parts and add your voice to the Marching Mizzou family. We sing the hymn with one accord at the close of each day.