Choosing where you go to further your education is a big decision. Choosing the University of Missouri (located in Columbia, MO) for your online master's degree may be one of your best decisions yet. The online format allows you to remain active in the field of music education as you study advanced content relative to teaching and performing. This 32-credit-hour FULLY online program will help you:

- Develop your knowledge and skill in ways that empower you to inspire your students while exploring the latest methods of research and pedagogy.
- Learn from music faculty noted for their professional accomplishments, as well as their teaching and research abilities.
- Complete the program entirely online, giving you the flexibility to complete your coursework from the comfort of your home and on your schedule.
- Graduate with the skills, creativity, and confidence to thrive as a teacher.

Enjoy low in-state tuition rates wherever you live!

Applications are currently being accepted for 2021 spring and summer enrollment—no GRE scores required for admission.
