Graduate Teaching Assistantship in Orchestral Conducting

The MU School of Music offers a number of graduate assistantships to qualified master and doctoral students. The Orchestral Conducting teaching assistantship is a quarter-time appointment (10hrs per week) with an anticipated stipend of $8,910. This amount is paid to students over the nine months of the academic year.

In addition, tuition for coursework required for the degree is waived during the appointment period. This waiver covers both Missouri residents and non-residents at all levels. The latest information on tuition and fees may be found at <https://cashiers.missouri.edu>.

Quarter-time assistantships also come with 50% allowance for health insurance coverage.

Applicants may qualify for assistantships in other areas as well. Please email the School of Music (music@missouri.edu) for available assistantships.

Duties may include

Assisting with all aspects of the University Philharmonic activities, including conducting full-orchestra and sectional rehearsals, preparing performance materials, and engaging in administrative duties.
