Graduate Teaching Assistantship in Percussion, Concert

The MU School of Music offers a number of graduate assistantships to qualified master and doctoral students. The Percussion, Concert teaching assistantship is a quarter-time appointment with an anticipated stipend of approximately $9,089. This amount is paid to students over the nine months of the academic year.

In addition, tuition for coursework required for the degree is waived during the appointment period. This waiver covers both Missouri residents and non-residents at all levels. The latest information on tuition and fees may be found at <https://cashiers.missouri.edu>.

Quarter-time assistantships also come with a 50% allowance for health insurance.

Applicants may qualify for assistantships in other areas as well. Please email the School of Music (music@missouri.edu) for available assistantships.

Duties may include

Teaching non-majors, teaching the percussion techniques/methods class, maintaining the instrument inventory, serving as the percussion solo/ensemble librarian, and administrative support for the percussion studio.
