

June 1, 2021

Hello,

Welcome to Mizzou Middle School Trombone Boot Camp! Dr Griffith and I are so happy you chose to attend this summer. Our goal is to improve your abilities on the trombone. The schedule for the attendees is as follows:

Tuesday, June 8th:

9:45-10:05- Warm up and fundamentals

10:05: 10:45- Master Class: "Developing Your Articulation"

Wednesday, June 9th:

9:45-10:05- Warm up and fundamentals

10:05: 10:45- Master Class: "Developing Your Upper and Lower Register"

Thursday, June 10th:

9:45-10:05- Warm up and fundamentals

10:05: 10:45- Master Class: "Introduction to Jazz Improvisation"

Special Event: 3:00- Joint Recital, Dr. Howe and Dr. Griffith (SMC 132)

Everyone attending the middle school portion of the camp will attend via live stream. You can go the following link to our YouTube channel and click on the specific day:

<http://bit.ly/musomlive> . We will also be using the chat room on Zoom to answer any questions you have during the sessions.

Link for Zoom is:

<https://umsystem.zoom.us/j/93793927899?pwd=dnJzU3puaHZHNDIQTGxpTHVNUGFBQT09>

In addition, Dr Griffith and I will be presenting a joint recital at 3:00 PM on June 10th in the Sinefield Music Center (SMC) which is on the corner of Hitt Street and University Avenue on campus. Metered parking is available on the street or in the Hitt Street Parking Garage meters across the street from SMC. The recital will also be live streamed the School of Music You Tube channel: <http://bit.ly/musomlive> . You are welcome to attend live or online. All live streaming is available to the public, so if you have friends who want to attend any part of the camp online, feel free to share the link.

See you all next week!

Dr. Tim Howe
Associate Professor of Trombone
University of Missouri

