All live streaming is available to the public, so if you have friends who want to attend any part of the camp online, feel free to share the link.

All events will take place in the Sinquefeld Music Center (SMC) which is on the corner of Hitt Street and University Avenue on campus. Metered parking is available on the street or in the Hitt Street Parking Garage meters across the street from SMC. As you may have noticed, there are breaks but there is not lunchtime scheduled. We will have water and snacks available during the breaks. Dress is summer casual.

See you all next week!
